

Introduction to Missional Living - - Reconnaissance of 2Timothy

Old... never die. They just...

Teachers ...lose their class. Bankers... lose interest.

Policemen...cop out. Musicians...decompose!

Old ministers never die - they just go on, and on, and on...

The mission of multiplication is God's answer to a dying world.

Field Condition of our mission in "these last days"

1. You cannot leave a legacy – you can only pass it on!

a. We are called to a mission of multiplication ... not reservation.

b. We need not be extraordinary to pass on a legacy – just faithful.

What are some of the traits we see in Timothy?

What do you think of Timothy's qualifications?

Do you have excuses for not being more active in mission

2. Your greatest risk is to risk nothing!

The marks of a mission agent:

What are some of the risks Paul and Timothy took?

Which of these risks must I take?

How did Jesus prepare His mission agents for the risks?

Challenge: "Fulfill your ministry!"

Am I willing to risk courageously?

Am I willing to work diligently?

Am I willing to suffer sacrificially?

Am I willing to die faithfully?
